

RENEWAL OF MULTI-YEAR CONTRACTS AND/OR AGREEMENTS

Under state law, you can have a multi-year contract only if it is annually renewable. Therefore, for E-Rate purposes, any existing multi-year contract or multi-year service agreement must be considered a “bid” during the 28 day competitive bidding period and must be evaluated against any other bids received. If, after carefully considering all bids received, you choose to renew the existing multi-year contract/ agreement, you need to memorialize the date you made the decision to continue the service under the existing terms to the next year.

The date that you accept to renew the terms of the existing multi-year contract or agreement for your E-Rate application is the date of the contract for E-Rate purposes.

Check the following MULTI-YEAR agreements* that you are choosing to RENEW for 2017-18:
